Looking After a Pet

Here is some information Tom wrote about looking after his rabbit.

Looking After a Rabbit

Pet rabbits live in a hutch with a run.

They eat dried food and fresh vegetables. They need to be fed twice a day.

Their hutch must be cleaned out often and fresh straw put in. They must have fresh water to drink. This should be checked every day.

Rabbits need a large run in which to exercise and play.

Task

Your task is to write about looking after a pet.
