

Daily Learning Task 4

Year 5

Maths

Focus: Year 4 Fractions recap – counting in fractions

Can you count in fractions? Here is an example of counting in fractions.
The fractions underneath the numberline show mixed number fractions too!
Can you remember what that means? It means that there is more than 1 whole

Try this:

Phillipe is counting in thirds. Spot and correct his mistake.

Spot and correct his mistake.

One third, two thirds, one whole,
one whole and two thirds, two whole ones,
two whole ones and one third,
two whole ones and two thirds,
three whole ones...

Answer:

Philippe has missed out one whole and one third when counting in thirds. He should have said this after saying one whole but, instead, he went straight to one whole and two thirds.

Focus: Apostrophes

Let's recap! What is 'possession'?

If you possess something, you have, own, or control something.

Marlon has a football.

You could say:

It is Marlon's football.

The football belongs to Marlon.
The apostrophe shows us possession.

Recap – Singular possession

Singular is when something belongs to one person or thing.

The girl's chemistry set.

one girl owns a chemistry set.

Rule

Add the apostrophe to the subject/owner of the item.
The apostrophe shows possession.
The apostrophe goes before the s.

Recap – Singular possession

If the word ends in a 's' for example,
Lewis or class then you go either

Rule

- a) Just add an apostrophe after the s
- b) Add 's

Both are grammatically correct.

Lewis' pen

or

Lewis's pen

class' teacher

or

class's teacher

Plural possession

Plural is when there is more than one person or thing that possess the item/s e.g.

The apostrophe goes after the s in plural possession.

The boys' football

- the football belongs to the boys, not just one boy. There is only one football.

The tables' numbers

- the numbers belong to the tables.
There are multiple tables and multiple numbers.

Have a go at the English work sheets, all about apostrophes for possession!

Other

Focus: Art

Can you create a piece of nature art? Head into your back/front garden and gather leaves/twigs/stones and create a piece of artwork. If you cannot go outside/do not have access to a garden, create this piece of art using crayons/paint/on the computer.
