Salvation

Christians believe that humanity sinned - The Fall - and Jesus, through dying on the cross, helped to save mankind through his sacrifice.

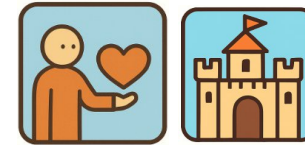

Parables

Jesus told his followers metaphorical stories, or parables, to explain his teachings. They used everyday ideas such as farming and fishing to explain how people should live their lives to honour God.

The Kingdom of God

Christians believe that the Kingdom of God will be perfect. Christians believe that they will enter the Kingdom of God after death. Moreover, Christians believe that they have the duty to make our world more like the Kingdom of God through good works like charity.

The Great Banquet

In the parable of the Great Banquet, Jesus explained that everybody is invited to join the feast - enter the Kingdom of God, but those who refuse the invitation will be left outside.

CORE FOUR

RE:

For Christians, what kind of King was Jesus?

Key Facts

Jesus used metaphorical tales, called parables, to explain how his followers should behave.

These parables can be found in the Gospels, the first four books of the New Testament
